SIGNATURES FROM BIG SKY 2006

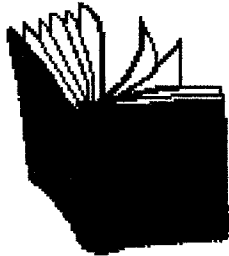

Montana Student Literary/Art Magazine

The 16th Edition of SIGNATURES FROM BIG SKY was published on April 26, 2006.

The figures tell the story:

200 students published
111 teachers in 81 schools in
52 cities/towns of MT

Added 4 pages of color, 4 pages of text to complete a 100-page magazine,
thanks to Cultural Trust Grant!

Approximately 850 submissions!

72 volunteers (educators, students and professionals) served on selection committees from 7 areas of the state, one writing and one art educator gathering the 14 committees and serving as the SIGNATURES board who re-select the 14 packets of materials at an annual meeting in Helena the first Saturday in March.

Shirley Olson chairs the board and Jan Clinard administrates details. Both have been with the magazine since its inception in 1990.

Montana Arts Council has not only supported SIGNATURES through the years, but 3 years ago gave us the opportunity to be featured in the Health and Human Services Calendar. Stefanie Flynn is the editor of that project.

SIGNATURES is a showcase of student talent in Montana, an inspiration to students toward excellence in the arts,
a tool for teachers to use in the classroom,
and proof to our parents and communities of the exceptional work of our Montana schools!
